the well-used carving board that serves one family's culinary needs year after year or the cutting board used to prep a great dinner for friends. It is these stories from our customers that keep us going.

We will design and produce products that are exceptional from a functional, aesthetic, and quality standpoint. We will stand by our products with a full 100% replacement guarantee...

VERMONT AND J.K. ADAMS KITCHEN STORE

Upon the death of George Pullman in 1897, Robert Lincoln, son of Abraham and Mary Lincoln, became president of the Pullman Company. Until the 1960s, Pullman porters were exclusively Black, and have been widely credited with contributing to the development of the Black middle class in America... We belong to the American Legion Post #13 in Vermont and are members of Hildene, The Lincoln Family Home in Manchester. Nearby is J.K. Adams Kitchen Store (where we shop while traveling). We'll let J.K. Adams tell their story...

“Our mission is to put a J.K. Adams product in the hands of every person who is passionate about their kitchen...”

PRODUCTS & GUARANTEE

Our customers' passion for food and entertaining guests at home is what drives us to develop new and innovative products. While we love a great-looking product as much as the next person, we believe, first, in the functionality of every board, bowl, and server that bears the J.K. Adams name. Our products should withstand the test of time and become kitchen heirlooms that can be handed down from generation to generation. Disposable is not in our vocabulary. This level of commitment to design and craftsmanship is what allows us to stand behind all of our products with a 100% customer satisfaction guarantee.

Personalized products are a delightful way to make a gift truly unique. Our selection of over 35 monograms will elevate your selections to a personal gift for friends, family, clients, or yourself. Engraving is a laser etching that can be done on wood and stone. Carving offers a deeper personalization that is carved into the wood. Create a treasured family heirloom today. ■

One of the cool things about J.K. Adams Kitchen Store is an observation deck where you can watch the artisan crafters make all of the different J.K. Adams products... We spent at least an hour in the store shopping for items to give as gifts, and for our home.
